A MESSAGE

Started in 2004 by the Law School and Wharton School Boxing Clubs, Fight Night is a time-honored University of Pennsylvania tradition in which the graduate schools compete in a boxing tournament for pride, glory, and above all else, charity. It is the largest graduate student event at the University and, as far as we know, the only event of its kind in the United States.

Proceeds from the event are donated to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia. Over the past 15 years, Fight Night has donated over $600,000.

We want to thank the University of Pennsylvania, our corporate and community supporters, the fighters, the volunteer event staff, and most of all, you, the attendees, for making Fight Night 2022 possible.

Sincerely,

FIGHT NIGHT 2022 COMMITTEE

THE CAUSE

All proceeds from Fight Night 2022 will be donated to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia, in support of their Literacy Initiative.

The Call. 17% of Philadelphia's 4th graders read proficiently. Studies indicate that children who do not read proficiently by 3rd grade endure long term consequences: they are more likely to become teen parents, drop out of school, or end up in prison.

The Action. In 2013, Boys & Girls Clubs of Philadelphia started a city-wide literacy initiative designed to engage over 1,300 youth annually in a multi-sensory approach to literacy education.

The Outcome. During the 2017-2018 school year, average participants DIBELS (Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills) scores increased by 73%. DIBELS assesses students' baseline skills and growth in the areas of phonemic awareness, alphabetic principle, accuracy and fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.
